This issue of the “Milestones in Medical Education” Newsletter bids farewell to the 2013 Pediatric and Dental Residents and Fellows’ Classes, and extends a warm welcome to the new Residents and Fellows. Every June in Medical Education is filled with bitter-sweet goodbyes, celebrations of achievements and graduations, and happy welcoming to the new residents and fellows. Another crop of well-trained Pediatric Professionals was launched on June 7th 2013 in a graduation ceremony. It is the Circle of Life... It is like any family... we watch the kids grow, some get married, some have kids of their own, some needed “tough love”, discipline & rewards... and at the end of the day... kids grow, leave the nest and fly.... Spread their wings and carry MCH image in their future like we carry our last names... but yet... they never totally disconnect from the “family”.. They are always part of the family.

This issue features:

- ◆ The 2013 residents and fellows graduation
- ◆ MCH GME office welcomes the new classes of Pediatric Residents, Dental Residents, Psychology Interns, and Pediatric Subspecialty Fellows.
- ◆ The 2013 5th Annual Residents’ and Fellows’ Scholarship Day a huge success.
- ◆ Residents and fellows continue to showcase their scholarly work nationally and in peer-reviewed publications

◆ Residents continue to participate in Advocacy efforts on behalf of children

As we send off a class of residents and fellows as MCH ambassadors, we give thanks to all the faculty, supervisors, advisors, mentors, hospital staff; who shaped our trainees in what to be what they became. I am sure they will carry the great learning opportunities they had at MCH to other training programs they joined or to jobs they hold.

We welcome the new class of residents and fellows and promise them an equally educational, challenging, and high quality training.

On June 21st, 2013 the MCH Research Institute and the MCD Department of Medical Education held the 5th Annual Residents and Fellows Scholarship Day. This year, a category of QI Projects was added to the submissions categories of Original Research and Case reports.

A total of 36 abstracts were submitted (18 in Original Research, 13 Case Reports, and 5 QI Projects). Abstracts were submitted by Pediatric Residents (21 abstracts) and Pediatric Dentistry Residents (4 abstracts), and Fellows (11 abstracts).

The following was the breakdown of the submissions:

ORIGINAL RESEARCH:

1. Fellows: 7 abstracts
2. Pediatric Residents: 7 abstracts
3. Dental Residents: 4 abstracts

CASE REPORTS:

1. Fellows: 4 abstracts
2. Pediatric Residents: 9 abstracts

QI PROJECTS:

1. Pediatric Residents: 5 abstracts

All submitted abstracts were peer-reviewed by a panel of 7 faculty reviewers (Generalists, specialists, and researchers). Abstracts were scored and the winning abstracts were presented as a podium presentation. The following winning abstracts were the finalists by primary author:

ORIGINAL RESEARCH:

1. 1st Place - Fellow Abstract: Clarines Rosa, MD (ER Fellow)
2. 2nd Place - Fellow abstract: Jun Sasaki, MD (PICU Fellow)

3. 1st Place - Resident Abstract: Fiorela Hernandez, MD (PL3)
4. 2nd Place: Resident Abstract: Daniel Canal, MD (PLI)

CASE REPORTS

1. 1st Place - Resident Abstract: Branko Cuglievan, MD (PLI)
2. 2nd Place - Fellow Abstract: Madhuradhar Chegondi, MD (PICU Fellow)

MCH Resident Puts Into Practice What he Learned at the of AAP Legislative Conference - Op-Ed in Miami Herald on National ASK Day

MCH Pediatric Residents Chad Rudnick, MD (PL3) and Stephanie Urban, DO (PL3) attended the AAP 22nd Legislative Conference in Washington, DC (April 28-30th). They were among 150 pediatricians from 40 states who went to Capitol Hill in Washington, DC with one message for Congress: find a way forward to protect children from gun violence. June 21st 2013 was National ASK Day.

Dr. Chad Rudnick wrote an Op-Ed piece that was published by the Miami Herald on June 21st, 2013. Dr. Rudnick wrote: "The ASK (Asking Saves Kids) campaign urges parents to ask their neighbors, friends, and relatives if they have a gun in the home before sending their children over to play. It is a comprehensive national public health campaign, developed by the Center to Prevent Youth Violence in partnership with the American Academy of Pediatrics." For more information about the ASK Campaign visit www.AskingSavesKids.org

To read the full Op-Ed piece by Dr. Rudnick, please go to: <http://www.miamiherald.com/2013/06/20/3462108/asking-kids-about-guns-saves-lives.html>

Excellent work Chad. Advocacy is one of the primary roles of pediatricians to advocate on behalf of children's wellbeing. Great example of advocacy at work!!!
